PREMIER'S SPEECH IS WELCOMED IN SCANDINAVIA

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 25 (Reuter) -Mr. Chamberlain's speech aroused intense interest in the Scandinavian countries, where several points are regarded as particularly timely.

The Prime Minister's clear statement of the British war aims, especially his indication that Bri tain and France would not settle peace terms by themselves, have been specially welcomed.

It has always been the contention of the Scandinavian countries that they should be consuited in the task of building the lighting European peace after the war. Mr Chambertain's reference to the difficult position of small States bordering on Germany aroused particular interest in Denmark, while his frank explanation of the British attitude in the Altmark affair appealed to the Scandinavian common sense. See Page 7

Secondly, internal unity, which has been subjected to an increased degree of strain, reflecting tendencies that have operated all over the world, is to be strengthened by means of give-and-take discussion between the Kuomintang and the Communist party. Thirdly, it has again been emphasised that all these developments are made possible by continued resistance, resistance which retains unchanged its aim of the complete liberation of the country on the basis of the Three People's Principles.

BOTH THE ANNOUNCE-MENT of the new Constitution and the article on China's peace terms appearing in the Chungking "Ta Kung Pao," often a mouthpiece of Government, policy (as in the case of the exposure of the Wang Chingwei sell-out) stress that no compromise is possible on the meaning of China's territorial integrity, the restoration of 2. The article in the "Ta Kung Pao" specifically mentions, in addition, the leased territory of Kwantung (with its ports of Dairen and Port Arthur) and the South Manchuria railway zone. It also ofit, be sold and the proceeds, demands the renunciation by the Japanese of extraterritoriality and "special rights" on Chinese soil and indicates China's interest in the fate of Manchuria and Korea by pointing out that the future of these countries must be determined by the wishes of > their native populations. WHILE CLAIMING these rights, the article makes it clear that China does not desire to annihilate the Japanese nation or to deprive it of opportunities of legitimate trade. It recognizes the common and complementary interests of the Chinese and Japanese peoples not only in the economic sphere, but in obtaining for the Asiatic races the equality which they are denied, expressly or by implication, in the immigration and other legislation of the Western countries.

PREMIER OUTLINES PEACE AIMS MOST FORCEFUL WAR BRITISH AID

LONDON, Feb. 24 (Reuter) - "We have no reason to fear the result of this struggle, however long it may last,' said the Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain, in a speech at Birmingham today.

In one of the most forceful of his speeches since the outbreak of war. Mr. Chamberlain re-stated the Allied peace aims, including as first essentials:

- (1) the restoration of the independence of Poland and Czechoslovakia;
- (2) tangible evidence that German assurances for the future will be fulfilled.

After referring to "that hardbitten force" on the British West Front, Mr. Chamberlain declared that Germany had again been gloriously disappointed regarding the support accorded by Empire.

Mr. Chamberlain declared further —

"I am amazed at the vastness of the effort which the country is making and at the spirit of unity and resolution with which it is being conducted.

LIBERAL AND LABOUR VIEWS

FINLAND

LONDON, Feb. 25 (Reuter)-Liberals support for the demand that Britain should give more assistance to Finland was voiced by Sir Archibald Sinclair, Leader of the Liberal Opposition, in a speech in London, .

He said that if Finland's heroic resistance to M. Stalin's oriental despotism were to be overcome, a heavy blow would be struck to the cause of freedom everywhere and the credit of the British and French Governments would suffer. "Half measures will not do: every nerve must be strained to

On the other hand, the Labourite, Mr. E. Shinwell, in a speech at Durham, while "not excusing Russia in the least," deprecated any talk of going to war with Russia and asked: "What effect would it have on the national morale and how long would the war continue we were led into such escapade?".

Radio Drop First Points: Splendid Rally By Nomads

RADIO AND POSTAL SPORTS CLUB'S championship aspirations received a rude shock yesterday when, playing at home, they were beaten by 5 goals to 2 by the Nomads Hockey Club after enjoying a 2-1 lead at the interval

The winners thoroughly deserved their victory, which should have been bigger but for some good goal-keeping by Souza in the Radio goal. They were faster on the ball and had a fast-moving forward line among whom P. Bull was prominent.

FUNCTIONS OF JOINT SINO BANKING OFFICE ARE EXPLAINED

The present high degree of co-ordination and co-operation in the regulation of currency and exchange and the financing of commercial, industrial and mining enterprises in wartime China is due, to a considerable extent, to the Joint Administration Office of the Chinese Government Bank, of which Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is the chairman,

On September 8, 1939, the National Government mulgated a set of regulations governing the wartime national financial structure. The four government banks, namely, the Central Bank of China, Bank of China, Bank of Communications and Farmers Bank of China were "to form a joint administration office with a view to conducting all kinds of banking business relative to the wartime financial policy of the National Government."

Joint Administration Office has a the tenth day of each month, chairman and three executive directors. The National Government appointed Generalissimo! Chiang chairman, and Dr. H. The three U. S. public health service specialists were sent to China to help in malaria-prevention in Yunnan some time ago at the request of Dr. H. H. Kung, Minister of Finance and vice-president of the Executive Yuan

Dr. Brown recently accompanied them on a survey trip to the men of the National Health Suhrise tomorrow, 6.48 a.m. various malarla-affected districts Administration, the Southwest of Yunnan. They travelled along Transportation Company and the Barometer (at sea level), 30.01 ins. the Yunnan-Burma highway as far as the Burma border.

aminations were made on several at different communication points Wind Force (Beaufort), 0. hundred school children ascertain the frequency of the malaria "epidemic, while the type, of malaria prevailing in different districts was shown in the blood smears analyzed during such

It was discovered that Chefang, Mangshih and Loiwing are the malaria-infected areas in which a mosquito uhknown before, was found Dr. Williams, leader of the American malaria-prevention mission China, has opened laboratories in three places.

Dr. Brown said that he has opened a hospital at Loiwing which he "hopes will become the best-equipped in Yunnan Province At present an X-ray machine is already in operation while 15 big cases of equipment have just

KOTEWALL CUP WON BY SOUTH CHINA

CHEUNG WING-CHOI BRILLIANT

Showing superior skill and judgment on the field, South China A.A. yesterday, before a large crowd at Causeway Bay, defeated the Army by four goals to one to win the Kotowall Cup.

Both teams played well, and occasionally the Army forwards caused the Chinese to do some quick thinking but it was evident early that South China would caprure the Cup in spite of the 1-1 score at half-time.

South China played without Lee Tin-sang and Chan Tak-fai, whilst Bright took the place of Guy, the Interporter, at centre-half for the Army.

The most brillian; player of the afternoon was undoubtedly South China's custodian, Cheung Wingchoi, whose spectacular guarding of the goal was a delight to watch. Hossack was also good, and many times led his line past Lam Takpo. Fung King-cheong's passing was, as usual excellent but Lee Wai-tong was closely watched by Bright.

The first goal was scored by the Army three minutes after the whistle, when For netted from s meles in front of the Chinese goal that resulted from a fine attacking rush by Shaw, Bundy and Hossack.

Ip Pak-wah however soon equalised from a rebound that robbed Lai Shiu-wing of a goal. CHINESE LEAD

.The score remained at 1-1 until half-time. A few minutes after the opening of the second session, the Chinese, through Lai Shiu-wing went ahead. Fed with a ball from secure a very fine goal, and later almost at the goalmouth. Toward, the end of the game, Lee Wai-tong shot the fourth goal.

The Cup was later presented to trophy.

The teams were:-ARMY: - Duncan; Naysmith, Sheehan: Freshwater, Bright, Wilkinson: Hossack, Bundy, Fox, Shaw
